Drivers and Walkers.
Why Industries Grow.
Travel by Rocket.
One Gambler Jumps.

By ARTHUR BRISBANE.
(Copyright, 1929, by King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

BOOTLEG whisky, "home brew" and automobile accidents are related.
Drunk drivers kill many.
Everybody knew that.

Now Dr. Norris, chief medical examiner of New York City, says that "drunken walkers" cause accidents for which the automobile industry is blamed.

DR. NORRIS urged that reckless walkers be fined and adds, "TWEN-TY-FIVE PER CENT OF ADULTS HURT BY AUTOMOBILES ARE INTOXICATED."

AN observer of high finance says industry progresses rapidly "because sons of very rich men play polo and golf, neglect business, inherited from their fathers, and allow able men to attend and develop the business."

THAT is true in some cases. No Vanderbilt runs the New York Central Railroad, no Ryan manages street car lines, no J. J. Hill descendant manages great railroads in the West. But, it isn't true always.

FOR instance, John D. Rockefeller, Jr., not conspicuous on the golf course or polo field, runs successfully the biggest business in the world, turned over to him by his father, now

AND the American tobacco company is run with an extraordinary success, to which its competitors will testify, by a very young man, George W. Hill, who inherited the job from his father.

Here and there young men inherit ability and ambition with great wealth, but not often.

It is easy to succeed in spite of poverty. It is difficult to succeed IN SPITE OF WEALTH.

A COURAGEOUS German inventor, Fritz von Opel, was the first to ride in an airplane driven by rockets and lives to tell about it.

Science discussed the possibility of a journey to the moon inside a rocket fired with force sufficient to escape the earth's attraction.

Fritz von Opel has actually traveled one mile and a quarter, in 75 seconds, in an airplane driven by the rockets exploding in the rear.

EXPLOSIVE force of chemical preparations is a little uncertain for travel. But that airplanes will fly some day carrying no gas engine or fuel is probable.

Some future Marconi or Edison will find a way to send wireless power into the air, enabling fliers crossing the continent to borrow power from Niagara, Rocky Mountain waterfalls and other plants on the way.

IN THIS column you have seen the advice: "Don't gamble."
W. J. Keyes, vice president of the C. A. Earl Radio company, New York, neglected that advice.

On Monday, he attended a directors' meeting. Tuesday he jumped from the window of a high building and died. To his mother he had written: "Last April, I was worth $100,000. Today, I am $24,- 000 in the red."

THE LOST $124,000 in stock gambling in one year and is one in tens of thousands. DON'T GAM-BLE.

Invest wisely in American securities and in America's future, and you will prosper.

Gamble, and you'll lose.

STROKE CLAIMS STATESMAN IN BERLIN HOME

Foreign Minister Stricken With Apoplexy.

NATION MOURNS
Great Figure of Post War Days Popular.

BY OTTO D. TOLISCHUS.
I. N. S. Staff Correspondent.
BERLIN, Oct. 3.—One of the greatest figures on the international political postwar horizon was removed today in the sudden death of Dr. Gustav Stresemann, minister of Germany, from a stroke of apoplexy.

Beautiful Sport Fabrics
Dr. Stresemann died at 5:25 this morning. He had been stricken at midnight, and failed to regain consciousness.

The sudden and entirely unexpected death of the foreign minister threw a pall of gloom over Germany, for although during his entire tenure of office Dr. Strese-mann fought against violent opposition from all political quarters, he was nevertheless a popular figure and had carried the banner of reconstruction through the trying post-war days in Germany.

Although he had been suffering for some time from a kidney ailment complicated by thrombosis, Dr. Stresemann died literally "in harness." A few hours before his death he had attended a party caucus, and spent the late hours of yesterday afternoon in political conferences at his home.

Political Excitement Blamed
The stroke came apparently without warning shortly after midnight. Physicians were sent for, and it became increasingly obvious the statesman would not recover from the stroke, members of his family assembled at his bedside.

Every possible effort was made to save his life, but his system, weakened by a complication of illnesses, was unable to rally. The end came peacefully a little more than five hours after he had been stricken.

The excitement of the last few days, during which Dr. Strese-mann fought heroically against violent opposition to a cabinet crisis, is held directly responsible for his death. The possible crisis centered about passage of a reform bill for unemployment relief.

For hours late yesterday, Dr.
Stresemann urged his supporters, members of the German Peoples' party, not to vote against the measure. All his great oratorical powers were expended in an effort to keep peace within his own ranks and prevent collapse of his ministry, but he gave no indication that he had exhausted himself to such an extent that his life was at stake.

It is planned to hold a state funeral for Dr. Stresemann on Monday.

Within a few hours after the foreign minister's death the reichstag passed the unemployment bill by 238 to 155 votes, as a gesture of tribute to the dead minister.

Ludwig Kaas, a clergyman, is spoken of as possible successor of Dr. Stresemann. In a statement to International News Service, Dr.
Kaas said:

"I am shocked to learn of the death of Dr. Stresemann. If I should succeed him I would not change his foreign policy. Franco-German understanding is the cornerstone of this policy, but I would also want to cultivate the most friendly relations with anglo-saxon powers. We could not allow our-

MRS. HIGBIE SETS
PACE IN GOLF

OAKLAND HILLS COUNTRY CLUB DETROIT, Oct. 3.—(INS.)
—Mrs. Harley Higbie of the Detroit country club was two up on Miss Glenna Collett, defending champion at the end of the first nine holes in their quarter-finals match in the women's national golf championship here today.

Miss Collett was experiencing much difficulty with her putting and most of her losses during the round could be traced to this fault.
She was also a bit wild from the tears. Mrs. Higbie was four up at the seventh but lost the next two holes.

FIVE KILLED ON CROSSING DURING STORM

Crack Train Wrecks Automobile at Warren, N. H.

VICTIMS YOUTHS
Crash Occurs as Workers Near Camp.

WARREN, N. H., Oct. 3.—(INS.)
Five young men were instantly killed at the grade crossing of the Boston and Maine railroad here during a heavy rain storm today.
Their automobile was hit by the big locomotive of the "Red Wing," crack midnight passenger flier from Boston to Montreal.

The dead:
ERNEST ANDERSON, 31, Worcester.

HUGH TUCKER, 30, foreman, Waco, Texas, married, wife in Chicago.

JOSEPH LECLERE, 29, Brooklyn, N. Y.

WILLIAM E. JOHNSON, 28,
Gorcas of Evergreen, Ala.

PAUL BALDWIN, 30, Barton, Vt.
The quintet were part of a field squad of 25 power company workers who had come to Warren from Worcester. They had been to St.
Johnsbury, Vt., and were returning in a small sedan type car to the power company's camp here.

Fourth Ohio Crash Victim Dies.
DEFIANCE, O., Oct. 3.—(INS.)
—Elaine Mattocks, 4, is dead here today from injuries which she suffered when the automobile in which she was riding was struck by a passenger train at Standley, last of here.

Three other occupants of the car were killed in the accident which occurred early yesterday. Two of them were children.

Mrs. Frank Mattocks, mother of two of the dead children, was driving the car at the time of the crash. She sustained a broken arm.

SAFE-WRECKERS
GET $209 LOOT

SALEM, O., Oct. 3.—Burglars battered open safes in the offices of the Citizens' Ice company, Mill street, and the Salona Supply company, Pershing avenue, last night, securing approximately $209.

They used a chisel and sledge hammer on the safes, first removing the dial. More than $209 was taken from the safe in the ice company office. At the Salona Supply company establishment, the robbers failed to open one safe but wrecked another.

MIDLAND MAN
DIES SUDDENLY

William A. Watson, of Midland, Pa., died suddenly of heart disease yesterday afternoon while visiting in the home of his brother-in-law,
R. R. Schneider, 842 Lockhart street, Northside, Pittsburgh.

Funeral services will be held in the Lockhart home at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

BROKEN BACK EXACTS AUTO VICTIM'S LIFE

Harry A. Smith, Potter, Dies in Wheeling.

ROGERS CRASH
Car Plunged Over Youngstown Road
Embankment.

Harry Austin Smith, 30, dipper at the Edwin M. Knowles China company's plant at Newell, died in the North Wheeling, W. Va., hospital last night from a broken back, sustained June 9, when an automobile, in which he was riding, plunged over an embankment on the Youngstown-East Liverpool road north of Rogers.

Smith, who was a patient in the East Liverpool hospital until August 23, was pinned under a car driven by Mrs. Belle Miller, of Newell, in the accident. Mrs.
Miller suffered lacerations to her face and head, while her nine-year-old daughter, who was also in the car, was unhurt.

The victim was born at Riverview, near Bridgeport, October 13, 1898, a son of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Smith. He leaves his parents and two brothers, William, H., Jr., and George Smith, and one sister, Mrs. Bessie Covey, all of Riverview. Funeral services will be held Saturday in the home in Riverview.

NASH COUPE
STOLEN HERE

Bert Gillespie, Diamond alley restaurant owner, reported to police last night that his Nash four-passenger coupe had been stolen while parked near the Elks temple, West Fifth street, between 5 and 8:30 o'clock. The car carried Ohio license number 477-817.

John O. Taylor, Park Boulevard, also reported the theft of his black camel's hair overcoat from his automobile which was parked in Summit lane. The coat, Taylor said, was valued at $135.

CLUBS HEAR DR. KERNAHAN

Visitation Chief at Kiwanis and Lions Meetings.

The Rev. A. Earl Kernaahan,
Boston evangelist, who is in East Liverpool directing a visitation and evangelism campaign, addressed members of the Lions and Kiwanis clubs at their weekly meetings in the Travelers' Hotel grill last night and today.

Speaking on the subject, "The Place of Personality," the speaker declared that the "biggest thing on God's earth today is a personality."

"The American people are inclined to believe today that the mere passage of a law makes it effective," he said. "Law and education do not guarantee the personality of civilization."

The Rev. J. H. Graham, Boston, who is assisting in the campaign, also attended the Kiwanis luncheon. Other guests were W. H.
Cordwin, J. L. Vordrey, J. C. Hassler, F. H. Johnson, Summitville Ki-wanian, and Wilford Forester, a guest of the latter.

Plans for the "good will" tour to be made through the county next Thursday were discussed by President Harry Keys and Robert H. S. Lindell made a report of the charter anniversary celebration at Wooster last Saturday at the meeting of the Lions' Club.
Fire Chief Bryan will discuss "Fire Prevention" at next Wednesday's meeting of the club.

Beginning of Year 5690.
This year will mark the beginning of the year 5690 on the Hebrew calendar. In ancient days, when the Jewish people lived in Palestine and agriculture was its chief occupation, the Hebrew New Year's day marked the opening of the economic year. It occurred in the beginning of autumn, because the season of the sowing of seeds began with the fall. This system of the agricultural cycle of the year was used by all Semite peoples.

The Bible, however, does not refer to this festival as the New Year's day, but the Jewish people, no

FRENCH FLIERS FEARED LOST

Hope for the safety of Maurice Bellonte and Diouddonne Coste, two French fliers, was almost abandoned today, Moscow reports said.
Since Bellonte and Coste left Le Bourget at 8:16 a. m. last Friday in the resupply plane Question Mark to seek a new world distance record by a flight to the Far East no word of their progress had been received.

WOMAN, 65, DIES
IN COLLISION

URBANA, O., Oct. 3.—(INS.)—
Mrs. William Rudisell, 65-year-old Cable, Ohio, woman, was killed here today when the automobile in which she was riding collided with a milk truck.

The woman's husband was badly cut and bruised.

Jack Frost, about 25 years of age, the driver of the truck, is being questioned by police.

The crash occurred on the outskirts of the city and milk and blood covered the street. Mrs. Rudisell was crushed beneath a rear wheel of the vehicle.

MOSCOW, Oct. 3.—(INS.)—
Hope for the safety of Captain Diouddonne Coste and Maurice Bellonte, missing in an attempted record-breaking distance flight, was almost abandoned today as no further word came from the French fliers.

Reports that their plane, the Question Mark, was seen flying over Beklemishevo, near Chita, and later over the Manchurian war-zone, have been discredited.

A new unconfirmed report states the fliers were sighted from the village of Adamova, 250 miles northeast of Irkutsk, but continued absence of any definite word has led to fears the fliers may be lost in some inaccessible spot.

The Soviet government is standing by ready to send out relief if definite word is received of their whereabouts. It is pointed out anyway to search the uncharted wastes of Siberia would be virtually hopeless.

AUTO VICTIM
IN LONG COMA

CINCINNATI, O., Oct. 3.—(INS.) Charlotte Norris, 9, who was injured in an automobile accident will have been unconscious 37 days at 3 o'clock today, according to a statement of City hospital, where she is confined.

Her period of coma is said to have broken all existing records in Ohio.

ILA M. CRONIN
CENSUS AIDE

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—(INS.)
—Additional supervisors for the decennial census next year announced today by the director of the census include:
Mrs. Ila Marshall Cronin of East Liverpool, Ohio, for Carroll and Columbiana counties.

COVINGTON MAN
HEAD KIWANIS

MARIETTA, O., Oct. 3.—(INS.)
—Following the selection of Toledo as the convention site for 1930, and the election of Guy O'Donnell, a Covington, O., attorney, as governor of the Ohio district, Ohio's Kiwanians are en route to their various homes today.

Lieutenant governors of the Kiwanians will meet soon to select a secretary. The re-election of Secretary Pete Land, of Akron, is expected.

Services Will be Held In Synagogue and Temple.

HEART ATTACK KILLS LAD IN SUMMITVILLE

Joseph Morro, 14, Salineville Freshman, Victim.

EXONERATE PAL
Tragedy Marks Friendly Scuffle on Way Home.

A friendly schoolboy scuffle between Joseph Morro, 14, and William Wargo, 14, Summitville, yesterday afternoon, when the lads were returning from Salineville high, where both were members of the freshman class, ended fatally when the former dropped dead in the highway near the Sum-mitville brick works. A sudden heart attack is blamed.

Chum Calls for Aid.
The two boys, chums, had alighted at 4:30 o'clock from the bus which daily takes the Sum-mitville youngsters into Salineville schools.

They began to wrestle in the roadway. While they were laughing, and chiding each other, Morro suddenly weakened and dropped to the ground.

Wargo immediately saw that his chum was ill and called for aid.
Frank Johnson, superintendent at the brick plant, responded, but Morro had succumbed within a few minutes after he fell to the ground.

Funeral Services Saturday.
The body was taken to the Hutson funeral home in Salineville where Coroner J. M. VanFossan of East Palestine was to conduct an inquest today.

The boy leaves his father, Michael Morro.

Funeral services will be held Saturday morning at 10 o'clock at St. John's Catholic church, Sum-mitville. Burial will be made in the church cemetery.

FOUR BUS LINES ASK PERMITS

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 3.—(INS.)
—Four petitions for the operation of bus lines in Mahoning and Columbiana counties were filed with the state utilities commission here today.

S. R. Blackburn, of Canfield, filed for permission to operate a motor transportation line between Boardman, a suburb of Youngstown and Rogers in Columbiana county.

M. J. Brubaker, of Columbiana, asked for a certificate to operate between Lisbon and Youngstown.
Paul C. Denkhous, of Lisbon, filed for permission to operate between East Liverpool and Lisbon, and Robert J. Cole, of Lisbon, wants to operate between East Liverpool, West Point and Elkhart, all in Columbiana county.

19 ENROLLED IN HI-Y CLUB

Nineteen boys were initiated at a meeting of the Junior Hi-Y club at the Y. C. M. A. last night. Robert Myler presided. The new members, welcomed by Jack Patterson, vice president, are: Willis Goodwin, William Gilmore, Phillip Irwin, Robert Hall, James Cooke, James Dotson, Harry Thomas,
Robert Burback, American Moyer, Robert Kapp, William Jack, Richard Lamborn, Chester Parsons, Richard Kirkham, Wallace Stimms,
Francis Wotring and Paul Shaw.

Next meeting of the club will be held on Wednesday, Oct. 16.

Five Hours' Sleep Not Enough

Thousands of men and women do not average more than five hours' sleep a night due to too frequent night calls. Broken rest quickly puts nerves on edge, saps vitality and strength. Bladder irritation, sluggish kidneys, with accompanying backache, pain in legs, scanty and burning elimination respond quickly to proper treatment. Dr. Dickson, a physician of many years' practice has had compounded a remedy that is guaranteed to relieve these conditions. Step in and ask us for a package of Dr. Dickson's Compound. Only 50c. Money back if not satisfied. Carnahan's Drug Store.

SCHOOL PUPIL KILLED BY AUTO

ROCHESTER, Pa., Oct. 3.—Betty, 10, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Gemmill, rear 388 Reno street, was killed yesterday afternoon when struck by an automobile driven, police say, by Mrs. Edith Powell, 362 Ohio avenue. The girl was on her way to school at the time of the accident. She suffered a fractured skull and bruises about the body. Police say the accident was unavoidable and Mrs. Powell, who was in a state of collapse, was released on her own recognizance, pending an investigation by Coroner H. C. McCarter.

LIBRARY LISTS SIX NEW BOOKS

MIDLAND, Pa., Oct. 3.—New fiction for girls has been received by Miss Beatrice Burdge, librarian, at the Carnegie library. Six volumes have been catalogued and are ready for distribution. Four books are by Ethel Huston are: "Prudence of the Parsonage," "Prudence Says So," "Prudence's Sister," and "Prudence's Daughter." The "Magic Garden" is by the late Jean Stratton Porter, while "Emily of the New Moon" was written by L. M. Montgomery.

"Father and Son"
Banquet Planned
In November.

MIDLAND, Pa., Oct. 3.—George W. Smith was elected president of the Men's association of the First Presbyterian church at the annual dinner last night. He succeeds O. L. Pringle.

Theodore D. Glass was named vice president and chairman of the Bible class department. James L. Porter and Ernest F. Frederick were chosen secretary and treasurer, respectively.

Rev. C. W. Cochran was re-elected teacher, while E. L. Arbuckle was named assistant teacher.

Queen Esther class, of which Mrs. L. L. Hunter is president, served the dinner to 75 men. The Rev. Mr. Cochran delivered the invocation, while Arbuckle closed the meeting with prayer.

School Superintendent H. V. Herlinger discussed "Community Service." William R. Howell spoke on "Progress of Aviation," while M. A. Hurt delivered an address on "Salesmanship." A. W. Gittins, Boy Scout adviser, discussed "The Interests of the Boy Scout Movement in Midland."

President-elect Smith announced that a "Father and Son" banquet would be held in November.

WOMEN ATTEND M. E. SESSION

McDONALD, Pa., Oct. 3.—Mrs. Berkeley Frank, Beaver avenue, and Claude A. Scholl, Penn. avenue, will leave today for Connellsville to attend the laymen's session tomorrow of the Pittsburgh conference of the Methodist Episcopal church. They were chosen recently to represent the women of the congregation.
E. B. Beglin and E. M. Wallover are also lay delegates.
The Rev. H. C. Critchlow left Tuesday for the opening session. Ministers will be assigned on Monday.

FIREMEN GO TO STATE MEET

MIDLAND, Pa., Oct. 3.—Chief W. G. Anderson and Albert Monac, Midland avenue, are today representing the Midland firemen at the fiftieth convention of the Firemen's Association of Pennsylvania at Pittsburgh.

Parade of 10,000 firemen was held at 1 o'clock this afternoon. "Old Pat Lyons," antique hand pump model fire engine, was entered in the parade by Greensburg firemen of Westmoreland county to whom the apparatus was sold by Pittsburgh after many years of service. The machine dates back to Pittsburgh fire of 1845 when the business district was wiped out.

Delegates today were taken on sight-seeing trips, while many attended the radio show.

JOHN E. BLACK ASKS DIVORCE

HURT IN CRASH, ASKS $15,000

BEAVER, Pa., Oct. 3.—Maurice J. Novice, Ambridge, today had filed suit against Caesar Ditonaso, also Ambridge, for $15,000 for injuries, as an aftermath of an automobile accident on last June 18.

Why Careful Mothers Prefer It.
Frightening croupy coughs, stuffy wheezy colds, and troublesome night coughs are quickly and safely eased and helped by Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. Mothers endorse it, is sedative without opiates and mildly laxative. Contains no chloroform, nor any ingredient that a careful mother would hesitate to give her child. Mrs. N. Weigel, Calvary, Wis., says: "My mother says there is no better cough medicine for children than Foley's Honey and Tar, and we too find it so." Ask for it.—Adv.

A new chain of shoe stores in Germany is selling shoes at $1.75 a pair.

RELIEF FROM CURSE OF CONSTIPATION

A Battle Creek physician says: "Constipation is responsible for more misery than any other cause." But immediate relief has been found. A tablet called Rexall Orderlies has been discovered. This tablet attracts water from the system into the lazy, dry, evacuating bowel called the colon. The water loosens the dry food waste and causes a gentle, thorough, natural movement without forming a habit or ever increasing the dose.
Stop suffering from constipation. Chew a Rexall Orderlie at night. Next day bright. Get 24 for 25c to day at the nearest Rexall Drug Store—Larkins, the Drug Man. Adv.

Join THE-OSTERMOOR Mattress Club

And enjoy all the sleep benefits of the world famous Ostermoor—

The finest mattress that Money, brains and skill can build

Sleep, according to no less an authority than the "American Journal of Clinical Medicine," is the most important thing in the world. More important, even, than the food we eat.

And sleep, when you get right square down to bed-rock fundamentals is only good for just one thing—to build back into our bodies the muscle and the nerve energy we burn up—every day—performing our daily duties.

The Ostermoor Mattress Club enables everyone—rich and poor alike—the equal opportunity of purchasing and enjoying all the benefits of this world-famous mattress—and pay for it out of income—as your money is earned.

The business man who needs energy and pep; the skilled mechanic whose work demands steady nerves; the brain worker whose thinking must be accurate, and the busy housewife who needs thorough rest and relaxation after the daily cares of the home are over—all can now through the Ostermoor Club Plan, enjoy the wonderful benefits of a thoroughly comfortable rebuilding night's rest—paying for your Ostermoor out of income.

If you go to bed—at night—all tired out—and get up in the morning feeling little or no better, you owe it to yourself—your health—to come in and investigate how easy it now is for you to own and enjoy all the benefits of this world famous mattress.

Come in NOW during the demonstration and sale. Join NOW while you can get $5 allowance for your old mattress

OSTERMOORSleep—

"Sleep is the most important thing in the world. More important even than food. For we eat to sleep—but we sleep to live. Men have gone sixty-three days without food and a week without water—but they can't last more than ten days without sleep.

"Loss of sleep causes a form of starvation, for the food we eat is digested and transformed into new muscles, brain, blood and nerve cells only while we sleep.

"Sleep recharges the exhausted body batteries and fills the organic furnace with fresh fuel. Sleep is a positive process—not a negative one. It isn't merely a stopping or bodily activity. It's a substitution of a constructive process for a destructive one.

Only while we are unconscious do we fully recuperate. The deeper the sleep, the quicker the recuperation. The lighter and more disturbed the sleep, the more we need of it—the longer it takes to effect repair.

"The quality of sleep is everything. An hour's nap, under favorable conditions is more restorative than an entire night's restless, dream-ridden sleep."

(From the American Journal of Clinical Medicine)

The greatest "Quality" Mattress opportunity, we believe, ever offered the public

If you want to wake up in the morning with a clear, quick-thinking mind; if you want to get out of bed ready to do a bigger and a better day's work, you must get a thoroughly sound, restful sleep the night before—a sleep that relaxes every nerve in your body. And that is just exactly the kind of a rest your Ostermoor Mattress will give you night after night, month after month, year after year—for years to come.

Thin Underweight Men and Women
Can Quickly Gain Needed Flesh

One Very Thin Man Gained 28 Pounds in Eight Weeks

Tens of thousands of exceedingly thin, yes, scrawny men and women have taken McCoy's Tablets and put on pounds of good firm flesh.

Not only will McCoy's increase weight, but taken regularly will cause frail rundown men and women to grow stronger and more energetic.

If the millions of skinny, scrawny men and women in America will start today and put their faith in McCoy's it is safe to say that at least 50 per cent of them will gain weight, health and attractiveness in a few weeks.

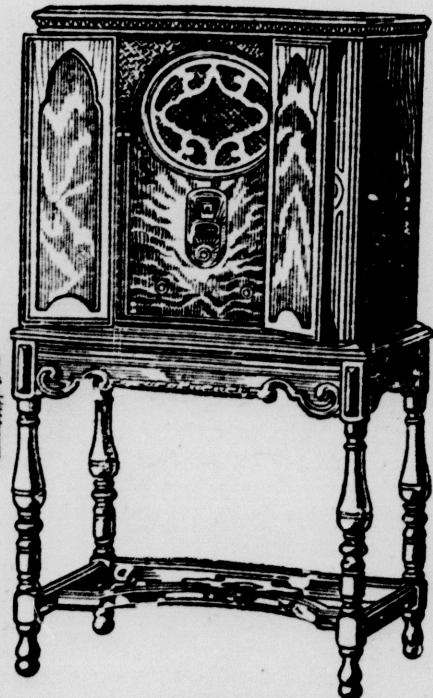

So why not start today? Why not fill out those deep hollows in neck, cheeks and chest? Why go on through life with sunken cheeks and narrow chest when you can take advantage of this straight forward offer. McCoy takes all the risk—Read this ironclad guarantee. If after taking 4 sixty cent boxes of McCoy's Tablets or 2 One Dollar boxes any thin, underweight man or woman doesn't gain at least 5 pounds and feel completely satisfied with the marked improvement in health your druggist is authorized to return the purchase price.—Adv.

Playground For East End

Through the kindness of the Harker Pottery company, use of a four-acre tract south of Ohio avenue has been offered for playground purposes in East End, where the need of a recreation center long has been recognized.

Charles R. Boyce, secretary of the pottery company, made the proposal at a meeting of Precinct B Civic league, which has been organized for the advancement of the interests of the First ward.

Definite action has been deferred by the East End organization, but it is not improbable that the offer will be accepted. For it is admitted that comparatively few East End children frequent the downtown play center at Second and Washington streets during the summer. This is due to the fact that the municipal playlot is too far distant for children to travel.

The City Federation of Women's clubs, sponsor of the recreation center movement here, has hoped to find ways and means of establishing a playground in East End. However, lack of funds has precluded action in bygone years. And maintenance of play centers is dependent upon the generosity of the public through contributions on Tag day.

If the Harker company's offer is accepted, steps must be taken to obtain funds to purchase needed equipment and pay the salaries of supervisors. With the co-operation of the Precinct B Civic league, the club women should be able to raise enough money to meet the expense of both the downtown and East End lots.

White Collar Prosperity

Prosperity and marked increase in the efficiency of industry are rapidly making the United States a nation of professional men and women, with the numbers of toilers employed in the laborious duties once associated with manufacturing definitely declining. This is disclosed in the department of commerce year book for 1929.

Since 1921 prosperity has increased in the United States and all signs indicate that the limit has not been reached, according to the commerce department's summary.

Business last year reached its highest level, manufacturing was the largest in its history, unemployment has been checked, agricultural production has been increased, foreign trade also has increased and financial transactions have established new records.

While commerce department experts adhered to the departmental policy forbidding extensive forecasts, both the statistical information and the note of assurance with which it was prepared demonstrated there is nothing on the economic or industrial horizon to indicate the pace of the moment will be halted.

This steady progress, combined with the introduction of more efficient methods, has made it possible, the report pointed out, for industry to get free workers for occupation in the professional and personal services. To the same degree, prosperity has brought about this condition, it was said, by making it possible for families to send their children to high schools, colleges and universities, with a corresponding increase in the numbers that are prepared for professional careers.

Along this line it is interesting to note that the general prosperity trend of the nation is reflected in increased industrial and building activity in Columbia county.

Strip-mining Spreads

Mining work by striping may have passed through its most active stages in the eastern part of the state but surface mines are growing in numbers throughout the nation, a survey just completed by the Bureau of Mines reveals. In Columbia, Jefferson and Harrison counties may be seen huge mounds of earth, overturned by strippers' shovels and now overgrown with foliage. These mounds built by artificial means stand as testimony to only a half-way successful attempt at mining coal beneath a shallow overburden, and a very little striping is now being accomplished in eastern Ohio.

Yet during an average year 19,000,000 tons of coal are being taken from the ground by striping, not to say anything of 24,000,000 tons of iron ore and 2,700,000 tons of pebble phosphate. Most of the coal and ores now being mined by open-pit methods could not be recovered by underground methods, the bureau's pamphlet sets forth, because of the shallow overburden and contingent expense and hazard.

With the increasing amount of surface mining, improvements are being made in the types of shovels that are used and advances have been recorded in the design of steam and electric equipment. Striping, in fact, is claimed to be the elemental form of mining. Overburden was removed by pick and shovel and hauled away in wheelbarrows and carts, until the coal seam was exposed. Through various stages, the huge shovel method was reached. Coal striping has developed from 1866 when the first pits were opened in the Danville, Illinois, district. Now 20,000 men in twenty states are engaged in mining bituminous coal in that manner. Striping takes fewer men than shaft mining.

In eastern Ohio, however, shaft mining has long been preferred over strip mining and with the coal industry paralyzed as it was not very long ago, striping was not able to make inroads into the trade.

HASKIN LETTER DAILY

By Frederic J. Haskin

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 3.—Third in rank of the Big Five banks which dominate the finances of Japan is the Mitsubishi Bank, Limited. As a bank its history is not so rich as that of other great financial institutions of the Japanese Empire but it had its springs in the days before Japan was opened to the trade of the world. The Lord Yoda Yamanouchi, a noble of the days of the Shoguns, established what was termed a "clan company" among the members of his family and his followers.

In those days Japan was from 500 to 1,000 years behind Occidental civilization. There were no regular highways; only tracks between the settlements. The country was infested by bandits and hostile clans often clashed. Trade was difficult and dangerous, almost a military enterprise. The Yamanouchi clan company was organized for the transportation of merchandise. From Osaka where the business was established, military convoys would protect the transport of goods over the paths to other markets and bring back what was received in trade.

As in the case of all the large Japanese businesses, the same family group held control of the enterprise down through the generations, thereby insuring its continuance as a going concern. Indeed it continued much along the same lines until as late as 1870 when Yataru Iwasaki effected a reorganization. The old clan company engaged in shipping operations then, expanding its business. Manufacturing and mining were added and, in 1875, when an imperial charter was awarded the concern took the name of the Mitsubishi Mail Steamship company.

Not until 1880 was the banking business entered. Expansion continued, a big advance being made when the government, deciding to abandon government ownership of various industrial enterprises, turned over to the Mitsubishi interests, the great Nagasaki Shipbuilding Yard. In 1885 control was obtained of the One Hundred and Nineteenth Bank, the Union Transport company, and the now world-famous line of steamers, the Nippon Yusen Kaisha.

The modern Mitsubishi bank itself was organized as a joint stock corporation in 1919 with a capital of 50,000,000 yen, the yen being equivalent to 474 cents in United States money. In the reorganization some of the stock was permitted to go outside the family which had controlled this far-flung business for so many generations. It is interesting to note that when the great Japanese families which have controlled such business enterprises for many years decide to incorporate and issue shares, first consideration in the distribution is given to employees.

Indeed, the policy of the old Japanese families in this respect considerably antedates any profit-sharing plans of American corporations. It was one of the advantages of the feudal system that the lords of the manor always took care of their people and the last of the great feudalities, the Japanese, carried this idea into modern business.

The Mitsubishi Bank, like the other Big Five, has branches in all principal cities of the world and the Japanese Empire. The fourth bank in rank among the Big Five is the Daiichi Kinko or First National Bank. The Mitsui had a large part in the establishment of this institution in 1873 and it might be regarded as being, to some extent, an offshoot of their great interest. It was the Imperial government, however, which fostered the institution, obtaining the cooperation of the Mitsui, the Ono-gumi, great merchants and bankers. The government later withdrew from the banking business entirely and the independent Daiichi now is usually known as the First Bank.

Last in size but by no means in interest of the Big Five is the Sumitomo Bank, Limited. The Sumitomo might be called the aristocrat of the Big Five, although the smallest in resources. The varied interests of the family which owns it are of almost incalculable worth. The bank is but a side issue yet large enough to be one of the Big Five.

The family operates through a general holding company, the Sumitomo Goshi Kaisha which is capitalized at 150,000,000 yen, this stock being practically all held by the family. Some idea of the extent of its interests may be gleaned from the statement that it controls several mines—including the great Beshi Copper Mine dating from 1891—a warehousing company, steel works, copper works, wire and cable factory, fertilizer factory, construction company, colliery, life insurance company, and the Great Tosa Yoshinogawa Hydro-Electric Power company, any one of which is big enough to make millions of the owners. The family now is extending its interests into railways and, as an indication of the breadth of its activities, is reported to be heavily interested in the Japan Victor Talking Machine company.

Questions and Answers.

By Frederic J. Haskin.

Stop a minute and think about this fact. You can ask our Information Bureau any question of fact and get the answer back in a personal letter. It is a great educational idea introduced into the lives of the most intelligent people in the world—American newspaper readers. It is a part of that best purpose of a newspaper—service. There is no charge except two cents in coin or stamps for return postage. Get the habit of asking questions. Address your letter to the East Liverpool Review Bureau, Frederic J. Haskin, Director, Washington, D. C.

Q. What is the total income of all people in the United States? C. F. C.

A. The national income of the United States, according to a study made by the National Industrial Conference board, was $78,649,000,000 in 1926. This is $671.43 per capita and $1,865.07 per person gainfully employed.

Q. Why is it that robins do not sing in the Fall? A. A. R.

A. The singing of robins is connected with the breeding season and ceases when this season is over. This is generally long before fall.

Q. What was the purpose of the Graf Zeppelin's trip around the world? G. A.

A. Dr. Hugo Eckener is quoted as saying: "The Graf Zeppelin's voyage around the world was to demonstrate the expediency of her mode of travel, to intensify public interest, and to get financial support for the construction of the ideal Zeppelin which we know how to build."

The East Liverpool Review Offers a Booklet On Floors and Floor Coverings

It is now time to turn your attention to the floors. Before putting down your coverings see that they are in perfect condition.

Our Washington Bureau is going to help you in this matter by offering for distribution a booklet telling all about rugs, carpets, and other coverings, and how to take care of them.

Directions for finishing and staining floors are included. Enclose four cents in coin or stamps for return postage and handling.

Use the coupon.

FREDERIC J. HASKIN, DIRECTOR, THE EAST LIVERPOOL REVIEW INFORMATION BUREAU, WASHINGTON, D. C.

I enclose herewith four cents in coin or stamps for a copy of the booklet, FLOORS AND FLOOR COVERINGS.

NEW YORK DAY BY DAY

By O. O. McIntyre.

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—Students of superstition find an absorbing topic in the beautiful Century theater, which recently passed to the hands of the most ill-fated of all New York theatrical ventures. Vast fortunes have been employed to shake off its ancient hoodoo.

The Century was a triumph of artistic endeavor—the finest theater when opened, in the world. Its first night audience was perhaps the most representative ever gathered under one roof. Celebrities came from all over the globe to see what was christened "The New Theater."

The initial production was Shakespeare's "Anthony and Cleopatra" with Sothern and Mariow in title roles. It was not for some reason, discovered only a few moments after the curtain lifted, the acoustics were faulty. A voice could scarcely be heard back of the 12th row.

Hurried attempts were made to remedy this, and although there were slight improvements, architects shook their heads. The playhouse was doomed. It was not the first or likely the last theater unable to free itself from the shackles of a silly superstition.

Even the unimaginative began to notice the Century somehow had acquired an eerie and spooky appearance. So for years it wallowed in deplorable gloom. The finest stage productions offered there flopped, yet many were moved southward and achieved astonishing runs.

At night club after night club lodged in its basement and upper floors, but were forced to quit. The intrepid Tex Guinan at the height of popularity could not stem the tide of misfortune. The location was ideal and the open spaces of the park at its doorstep enhanced its beauty. Yet—

The Century will now be graced by an imposing building to be occupied by the French government, as a sort of industrial and artistic show place. Along with this announcement came the signs of feverish building activities in the lower section. Central Park West is on the boom.

Boys who used to go out to "paint the town" now go out to "heat up a joint."

YOUR HEALTH

An Ounce of Prevention is Worth a Pound of Cure.

By Dr. Royal S. Copeland

How many are there who think of social work as charity pure and simple? I fear many fail to realize the progress of the times. We overlook too many things that have to do with improving the welfare of the public.

The average person who does not suffer from any particular illness, or who is not in need of any social help, has little knowledge of what is being accomplished in some cities. They never come in contact with the fine work that the welfare organization groups are doing.

The Charity Organization of New York and the Welfare Council of New York City have cooperated together recently in issuing a directory of social agencies in the city. These have to do with better housing conditions, help for the homeless, homes for the aged, legal aid and help for the immigrant, food and the traveler. In addition, there are protective and correctional agencies.

In New York City alone there are 1,100 social agencies. There are more than 300 organizations engaged in family welfare work. Eighty of these are relief societies. There are six organizations for promoting better housing conditions. 23 to help the homeless. 52 homes for the aged, 11 legal aid services; 50 agencies to assist immigrants, foreign-born and travelers; 70 protective and correctional agencies for adults. In many of the 470 agencies engaged in some form of child welfare they also carry on health work, family welfare or recreational, as well as educational activities and neighborhood work.

There are 263 hospitals and 1,140 clinics dealing with health problems of the city, besides 112 infants' health stations. Also there are 27 nursing services, 67 institutions for convalescents, 146 services for mental hygiene and 36 health administration and educational organizations.

It is interesting to note that, with New York City "the social work capital of the world," there are 283 headquarters for national and international welfare agencies in the city. This great work represents an achievement which is significant of the broad and humane interest of public spirited citizens in the public welfare.

The statistics of the work of these organizations show how much the improvement of the public health is due to their efforts. Without doubt there would be greater demands made upon the doctor and hospitals were it not for these worthy organizations. Let us do all we can to encourage this fine spirit.

It is to be hoped that other cities of the country enjoy these immeasurable benefits. I assume they do.

Girl Scout Leaders.

Something more than a kind heart and a fondness for young folk is required to make a Girl Scout leader; hence the emphasis which officials of the Girl Scout movement are placing on the necessity for enlarging their facilities for training leaders. Mrs. Herbert Hoover, making a special trip from the White House to enlist in the effort to raise $3,000,000 for a five-year development program of the organization, stressed the fact that leaders in this work for girls should attend special training classes in universities and summer camps. The Girl Scouts already have eleven camps in widely scattered parts of the country and 12,000 leaders, but these camps must be enlarged and their equipment improved before the rest of the program can be undertaken. If the present membership of the organization is to be increased to 500,000 the corps of leaders like wise must be doubled or trebled.

The problems of youth are growing more and more complex as American civilization continues its dizzy pace. Ten years ago the automobile, the motion picture and the jazz orchestra caused shaking of the head on the part of those who came in contact with the younger generation. Today the radio, the airplane and the talking picture (not to mention the hip flask) have intensified those problems, while youth reacts to the changing currents of public opinion in a way that startles that once younger generation. The children of today who will be the young girls of tomorrow are going to have a wonderfully good time with all America's resources at their command, but they are going to need, too, every safeguard which the community can supply if they are to steer clear-eyed through the complications of their day.

The Girl Scout organization will teach them to be self-reliant and cognizant of the real value in fun and friendship. It will supplement the work of parents and school teachers by supplying a contact with older persons, the more valuable because it is established voluntarily, and this places a heavy obligation on the older person to enrich that contact with every resource that training can give an already kind heart.—New York Herald-Tribune.

AMAZON CHORUS IN SCREEN HIT

Twelve women of generously ample proportions, not one of them weighing less than 150 pounds, got their "break" on the screen when

Paramount made the all-talking, all-singing, all-dancing picture, "The Dance of Life," from the successful stage play, "Barlesque," now at the Ceramic theater. The "beef-trust" chorus has a composite poundage of 2,000.

The Amazon chorus appears in an opening sequence of "The Dance

O, For That Hard College Life!

That's the way they do their studies in college—or at least it would appear so from the way Eddie Quillan and Sally O'Neil harmonize. It's all in "The Sophomore," Pathe's collegiate carnival of youth and university life. Eddie, Sally and Jeanette Loff are featured.

Now showing at the State.

of Life," in which Hal Skelly and Nancy Carroll are featured. Gordona Bennett and her daughter, Miss La Reno, were the first two to be signed. Miss Bennett has been on the stage since she was three years old. Miss La Reno, for the past three years, has been a member of the chorus in a Los Angeles burlesque show.

MARCELINE DAY AT AMERICAN

Dipping down under the surface of the jazzmania that is exciting the emotions of a pleasure-mad younger generation, "The Jazz Age," an FBO production of ultra-modern theme, opens at the American theater today.

Marceline Day, Douglass Fairbanks Jr., Henry B. Walthall, Myrtle Stedman and Gertrude Messing head the cast of the feature. "The Jazz Age" throws a searchlight on the activities of a thrill-seeking adolescent crowd in a small American town. The indulgences and pleasures of this set are a part of the warp and woof of the background of the production. Created from a novel perspective, netting and flinching, playing and tell-taling command the actions of the juvenile principals—who, it is said, portray representative characters of the current period.

Marceline Day and Fairbanks are cast as the wildest members of an excitement-craving crowd. Miss Messinger plays the "kid" sister of Fairbanks, who seeks to prevent her association with his own playfellows. Walthall enacts the role of the father of both.

EDDIE QUILLAN ON STATE BILL

The serial, "Joe College," recently published in College Humor, has been brought to the local screen by Pathe, under the title, "The Sophomore," with Eddie Quillan in the leading role. This story, being a saga of the youth of today, will be given its local premiere at State theater today.

Sally O'Neil, petite star of many successful screen productions, will be seen in the feminine lead opposite Eddie Quillan and Jeanette Loff, blond beauty, who will be remembered for her fine work opposite Rod La Rocque in "Love Over Night," and "Hold 'Em Yale!" also has a prominent part.

"The Sophomore" probably gives Eddie Quillan the best opportunity of his career inasmuch as his role is exactly the type of thing everyone has admitted he could do best, that of a wise-cracking college boy with such a tremendous sense of humor that it was always getting him into trouble.

Rogers

Large crowds are attending the revival under the auspices of the Nazarene church in the community hall, in charge of Evangelist Jefferson Rogers of Massillon. The Rev. B. H. Pocock of Wellsboro assisted in the service Tuesday night. Miss Bigsby of East Pales time sang a solo.

"GOOD NEWS" MUSICAL HIT

Broadway Success
Is Booked Here
Oct. 10.

"Good News," the musical sensation that entertained Broadway for almost two solid years, will be the attraction at the Ceramic theater on Thursday night, Oct. 10.

If theatergoers want to do "setting up" exercises and get paid for it, a good job with "Good News" is just the thing, for the boys and girls in the cast are in almost perpetual motion, getting steamed up about the Tait college football game.

Laurence Schwab, B. G. De Sylva, Lew Brown, Ray Henderson, Bobby Connolly, Donald Oenslager and Edgar MacGregor—a real array of theatrical notables—are responsible for this smashing hit. To steam things up, one of George Olsen's bands, very collegiate in dress, is used. The several score of boys and girls employed in the presentation look very collegiate. They dance like demons. Nothing is slow excepting the hero, Tom Marlow, in learning astronomy.

The framework of the play is the planning for the annual football game with Colton, Tait's hated rival. The hero is sneaked through astronomy so he can play in the game and then he fumbles the ball and the college "boob" blunders to success.

The song hits include "Just Imagine," "Lucky in Love," "Good News," "The Varsity Drag," "The Best Things in Life" and "The Girls of the Pi Beta Phi."

Women Are Free! AN ANCIENT PREJUDICE HAS BEEN REMOVED

Legally, politically and socially woman has been emancipated from those chains which bound her. AMERICAN INTELLIGENCE has exploded the ridiculous theory that forced the stigma of inferiority upon a sex.

"toasting did it"—

Gone is that ancient prejudice against cigarettes—Progress has been made. We removed the prejudice against cigarettes when we removed harmful corrosive ACRIDS (pungent irritants) from the tobaccos.

YEARS ago, when cigarettes were made without the aid of modern science, there originated that ancient prejudice against all cigarettes. That criticism is no longer justified. LUCKY STRIKE, the finest cigarette you ever smoked, made of the choicest tobacco, properly aged and skillfully blended—"It's Toasted."

"TOASTING," the most modern step in cigarette manufacture, removes from LUCKY STRIKE harmful irritants which are present in cigarettes manufactured in the old-fashioned way.

Everyone knows that heat purifies, and so "TOASTING"—LUCKY STRIKE'S extra secret process—removes harmful, corrosive ACRIDS (pungent irritants) from LUCKIES which in the old-fashioned manufacture of cigarettes cause throat irritation and coughing. Thus "TOASTING" has destroyed that ancient prejudice against cigarette smoking by men and by women.

"It's Toasted"—the phrase that describes the extra "toasting" process applied in the manufacture of Lucky Strike Cigarettes. The finest tobaccos—the Cream of the Crop—are scientifically subjected to penetrating heat at minimum, 260°—maximum, 300°, Fahrenheit. The exact, expert regulation of such high temperatures removes impurities. More than a slogan, "It's Toasted" is recognized by millions as the most modern step in cigarette manufacture.

MISS GERTRUDE H. SHAW BECOMES BRIDE OF FRANK N. RICHMOND

Miss Gertrude H. Shaw, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Shaw of Louisiana, La., became the bride of Frank N. Richmond, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Richmond of Louisiana, La., at a pretty ceremony performed Friday night, September 27, in the Methodist Episcopal parsonage in Fairmont, W. Va. The Rev. W. M. Givens officiated.

The bride was gown in brown crepe with hat to match. She is a graduate of the Chester High school and attended Kent Normal school.

The bridegroom is a graduate of the Chester high school and Ohio Valley business college, and is employed as teller in the First National bank.

Mr. and Mrs. Richmond are at home to friends at 353 Carolina avenue, Chester.

BETWEEN YOU AND ME

BY JOAN.

"Bring my coach," the traveler would command in the old days of 1729. And after a dash to his counting house, where he'd count out enough gold for his journey, off he'd rumble with his money in his sack. It was such an awkward way of doing things! Yet nowadays some people burden themselves with their valuables just as awkwardly. It seems so foolish to risk losing something very valuable when a Safe Deposit Box at the First National Bank is so inexpensive and in it can be kept insurance policy, bonds, receipts, cherished old pieces of jewelry—in fact about everything we consider precious.

Even the most cruel of men have been driven to remark that all women drivers aren't crazy that some of them drive remarkably well. Of course there's a reason. Women are learning that "Ease of Operation" lays in a regular visit to Grease Palace. Proper lubrication is one of their hobbies. To all women who are just learning to drive I'd say, "See to it, before you take the car out again, that it goes to Milliron's Grease Palace for crankcase service and a tank full of their high quality gas. Honestly, you'll be able to shift gears and see all the new things in the store windows at the very same time. No grumbling and screeching when gears are shifted; just a faint purr and the car flows along the road.

Listen to this! If you have any sterling toilet articles or some table silver that has become dull, tarnished or worn off, you'll want to hurry down to the Caravan Drug Store and get a box of Silverfill. It's a powder containing pure silver and replays as it polishes. It will give silvery beauty to brass, copper, bronze and other metal surfaces and will also preserve them from future wear or tarnish. Scarcely any rubbing required and it leaves a beautiful luster. Only 50 cents for a generous box of it.

Successful men—leaders in professions—say that to succeed quickly you must first look the part. "You may get along well with people," they say, "you may be capable," yet if you do not look your best you handicap yourself." Success isn't altogether a matter of dress but who will deny that the well-groomed young man will climb the ladder much faster than the brother with the battered hat and a slouchy, ill-fitting suit. If you are on the way up, young man, it will pay you to look your best now and it will pay you to look at the new Fall suits and Overcoats at Frank Diamond's. If you know style and recognize clothing values you will fully appreciate his merchandise.

Too far ahead of the mode is to be extreme, behind it is to be passe, but keeping pace with fashion in the most acceptable manner is a recognized achievement of Lemmer's. "Where Style and Quality Predominate"—sloganized and realized in perceptible terms of smartest Autumn Apparel and accessories. By this time you've probably an idea of the color and style of coat you want. You'll find an interesting revelation in coats for every occasion—at Lemmer's. The prices are so attractive for such unusually smart styles that no far-seeing woman will ignore them.

Commercial Art is an industry with a future. It is not only a highly profitable work but it is pleasant work—an accomplishment that brings joy to the artist as well as his friends. Millions of dollars are spent each year on cartoons, designs for magazine covers, letterheads, wallpaper, programs, etc. If it is your chosen field, if it is your talent if you do not enslave your talent if you do not conduct by Mrs. Harriet Anderson. I'm told by the students that class work is made intensely interesting. The small fee will inspire you to enroll for tomorrow evening's class. Main 9653 for further information.

To use more time and effort than is needed for any piece of work is considered an economic crime. Timesaving today is a vital problem. No housekeeper who lets housework consume all her time is very interesting. To be kitchen-minded is a fatal error—one that you need not fear, however. If Frigidaire is part of your kitchen equipment. Not only can you prepare salads and desserts more easily in advance but also the foods that make up the main dinner course. Time and labor saving? Well, I should say Frigidaire makes cooking a real delight. You owe it to yourself and family to learn all about this refrigerator. This you can do by visiting the Crockery City Ice & Products Co.

Only a doctor knows what a laxative should be

YOU don't want to use a laxative every day. Nor once a week. This should not be necessary. And it never would be required if all of us would learn the danger that lies in a careless selection of laxatives.

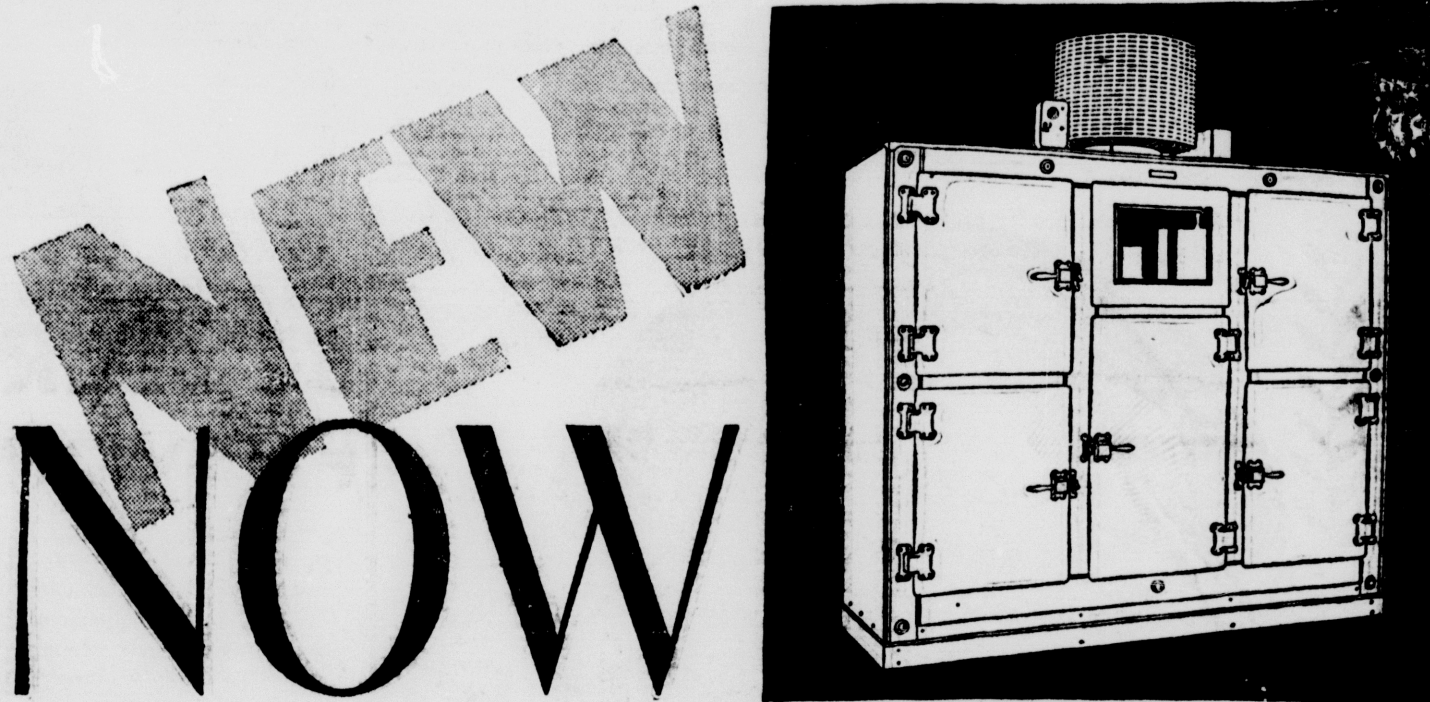

By taking the first thing that comes to mind when bad breath, headaches, dizziness, nausea, biliousness, gas on stomach and bowels, poor appetite, or lack of energy warns us that our bowels are sluggish, we risk forming the laxative habit.

Rely on a doctor's judgment in choosing your laxative. Here's one made from the prescription of a specialist in bowel and stomach trouble. Its originator tried it in many thousands of cases. He found it safe for women, children and old folks; thoroughly effective for the most robust man. There were so many calls for this prescription and its fame spread so rapidly that druggists began to fill it in quantities; kept it ready for calls. Now Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, as it is called, is prepared from the freshest herbs and other pure ingredients under ideal conditions. You can get the generous bottles of it from drug stores in any part of the world.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a real corrective of constipation. Millions have proved this. That's why it is today the world's most popular laxative!

MODEL C-450 has an all porcelain interior—food storage capacity 45 cubic feet. Shelves adjustable to 2 in. spacing. Exterior of cabinet, 75 1/2 in. wide, 30 in. deep, 72 in. high.

GENERAL ELECTRIC COMMERCIAL REFRIGERATORS

embodying the vital features of superiority which, in the household models, revolutionized refrigeration.

THIS announcement is of paramount importance to firms or individuals confronted with the problem of preserving perishable foods in large quantities. After years of research in its laboratories, General Electric has perfected a line of commercial refrigerators radically different and more efficient.

An entirely new type. Now, for the first time it is possible to buy as one complete unit a cabinet and refrigerating mechanism specifically designed for each other—working together for greatest efficiency at lowest operating cost.

These new refrigerators embody all the vital features of superiority found in the General Electric household models—of which more than 350,000 are in use today, and not one owner has spent a single dollar for service or repairs.

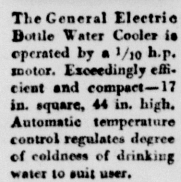

This is an unequalled record, made possible by the scientific design and the trouble-free operation of the mechanism.

Merchants and architects are invited to become acquainted with the various models of the new General Electric Commercial Refrigerator and their outstanding merits.

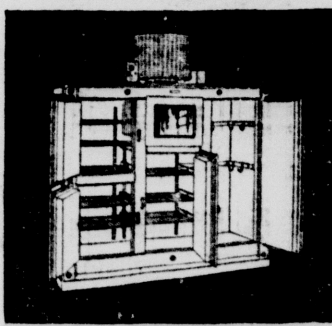

SEVEN VITAL POINTS OF SUPERIORITY

- 1 Easy to install—because the cabinet and the refrigerating mechanism are completely combined in one unit.
- 2 Greater storage capacity per square foot of floor area because all the mechanism is on top, out of the way, instead of taking up valuable space elsewhere.
- 3 Requires no attention. The mechanism is simple, quiet, hermetically sealed in a steel casing . . . trouble-free, dust-proof, self-defrosting, never needs to be oiled.
- 4 Maximum efficiency and greatest economy of practical operation.
- 5 Completely sanitary and easy to clean.
- 6 Self-defrosting evaporator which minimizes dehydration, reducing shrinkage of meats and other foods.
- 7 An unequalled two-year guarantee.

EVERY GENERAL ELECTRIC REFRIGERATOR IS HERMETICALLY SEALED

The General Electric Bottle Water Cooler is operated by a 1/10 h.p. motor. Exceedingly efficient and compact—17 in. square, 44 in. high. Automatic temperature control regulates degree of coldness of drinking water to suit user.

Model C-451 is similar to Model C-450 except that the right-hand portion of the cabinet is furnished with hooks instead of shelves and has a single full length door.

PLAN TO MAKE CROSSINGS SAFE

SAN FRANCISCO.—Legislation to force all vehicles to stop at railroad grade crossings was recommended today by H. L. Englehart, safety engineer of the State Railroad Commission.

"Out of 922 grade crossing accidents in the state during the first four months of 1929, only one involved stages, which are required by railroad commission regulations to stop when approaching crossings," Englehart reported.

Englehart asked that the State Safety Council frame proper legislation for the next session of the legislature.

When Babies CRY

Babies will cry, often for no apparent reason. You may not know what's wrong, but you can always give Castoria. This soon has your little one comforted; if not, you should call a doctor. Don't experiment with medicines intended for the stronger systems of adults! Most of those little upsets are soon soothed away by a little of this pleasant-tasting, gentle-acting children's remedy that children like.

It may be the stomach, or may be the little bowels. Or in the case of older children, a sluggish, constipated condition. Castoria is still the thing to give. It is almost certain to clear up any minor ailment, and could by no possibility do the youngest child the slightest harm. So it's the first thing to think of when a child has a coated tongue; won't play, can't sleep, is fretful or out of sorts. Get the genuine; it always has Chas. H. Fletcher's signature on the package.

$200,000 FIRE IN CLEVELAND

Origin of Lumber Yard Blaze is Mystery.

CLEVELAND, Oct. 3.—(INS)—Investigation was started here today in an effort to determine the origin of a fire which reduced the lumber yard of the Cuyahoga Material company to ashes late last night, causing $200,000 damages and injuries to three firemen.

Fanned by a strong wind, the blaze literally ate up the lumber yard within several blocks around, forcing their occupants to flee. The glare of the flames attracted thousands of spectators from all parts of the city.

The fire raged for more than two hours before firemen from fifteen companies who responded to five alarms, could bring it under control. The blaze was accelerated by the explosion of two gasoline tanks in the supply yards.

Firemen James Angel and Louis Hillenbrand were injured when they were struck by falling bricks as a wall of a warehouse building collapsed. Fireman Blanchard Smith received gashes from flying glass.

Fire Chief George A. Wallace, Cleveland's 81-year-old firefighter, declared the fire was the worst there in years.

President Hoover Sends Message to MacDonald.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—(INS)—President Hoover and Secretary of State Stimson sent radio greetings of welcome to Premier MacDonald on the S. S. Berengaria today.

"As you near the shores of the United States I send to you a most cordial welcome not only in my own name but on behalf of my fellow countrymen as well," was the president's message.

Secretary Stimson radioed: "I send you my heartiest greetings on your approach to America. A sincere welcome and warmest hospitality await you."

ABOARD S. S. BERENGARIA, by radio to U. S. S. Oct. 3.—Proceeding at increased speed in order not to arrive too early, the Berengaria, bearing Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald on his mission of peace and goodwill continued its uneventful voyage today.

The great ship's speed was slowed down when it became apparent that the ship was going to bring Premier MacDonald into New York ahead of time.

Man Injured in Fly Wheel.

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 3.—(INS)—In a serious condition, George Brock, 30, New Lexington was brought here as a result of an accident early today when he was caught in a fly wheel at the New Lexington plant of the Ludowici Celadon company.

Plan Holiday Service

Intense significance and endowing it with a most significant spiritual value. New Year's day came to be the day upon which God had created the world. The rabbis, therefore set it aside as the day upon which every human being and every living creature pass before God's judgment seat. For this reason, the Jewish New Year's day has been called the Day of Judgment. This idea gave rise to an elaborate liturgy and ritual which were to awaken man to the message of the Day and bring him to the state of repentance.

With the coming of the modern era in Jewish life, this idea of the festival of New Year as a Day of Judgment has been greatly developed. Self-examination, self-criticism, repentance and reconciliation with men and God became the chief values of this holy day; they are especially dominant in the Reform Jewish liturgy.

Do You Take Soda for Your STOMACH?

Then Read This:

"I never went out on the road without packing my soda bottle in my trunk. I took from one to five doses of soda a day, until I learned of ZINSEP Compound. After taking two bottles, I threw my soda bottle away and have never had any further stomach trouble and now things that I never dared to eat before."

Thousands of persons, former habitual sufferers of acid, indigestion, stomach pain, and the like, have found complete relief from digestive complaints in ZINSEP Compound. The reason is simple. ZINSEP Compound is not just a digestant; it is a stomachic, combining all the elements of an Antacid, Gas Eliminator, Stomachic, Carminative, Gastric Tonic, Internal Antiseptic and gentle Laxative. Being a well-balanced scientific corrective, ZINSEP restores the entire system of merely easing temporarily the effect.

A consistent and thorough course of ZINSEP will bring to you new stomach health. Try it. Buy a bottle today. Your druggist will refund your money if it fails to help you.

Judicial Candidates

HARRY BROKAW.

Attorneys Harry Brokaw and G. Jay Clark, Republicans, are candidates for the office of municipal judge at the Nov. 5 election. Brokaw was unopposed in the Republican primaries. Clark entered the race by petition.

Brokaw was born in Morgan county, Ohio, in 1877, coming to East Liverpool 19 years ago. He graduated from Marietta college in 1903 and secured his diploma from the University of Cincinnati law school in 1906. He practiced in Martins Ferry for three and one-half years and came to East Liverpool in May, 1910, forming a partnership with his brother, G. L. Brokaw.

He was a member of the Columbiana county liquor license board for four years before the adoption of state prohibition. He also served one term as city solicitor. Four years ago he was defeated for municipal judge by J. C. Hanley by 34 votes. He is a member of the Carnegie library board, having been named to succeed Dr. R. R. Hode.

Brokaw is a member of the Masonic lodge, a director of the Y.

G. JAY CLARK.

M. C. A. and a past president of the Lions club. He is a member of the official board of the Orchard Grove Methodist Episcopal church and is married and the father of a son and a daughter.

Clark is a son of the late A. H. Clark, East Liverpool lawyer. He was born in East Liverpool and graduated from the high school in the class of 1913. He studied law in the office of Common Pleas Judge W. F. Lones for several years and was admitted to the Ohio State bar in 1919, opening an office in the Potliff's Savings & Loan company building.

Clark was clerk to Mayor J. S. Wilson in 1921. Four years ago he was candidate for city solicitor at the G. O. P. primaries, running third in a field of four. He also sought the nomination in this year's primary election. Although he finished third, Clark polled 1,906 votes.

TARIFF WAR IS RESUMED

Senate Turns Guns on New Valuation Clause.

BY WILLIAM K. HUTCHINSON

WASHINGTON, Oct. 4.—(INS)—After thrice repudiating President Hoover on the flexible tariff, the senate today resumed its tariff war with a battle over fixing the valuation basis for assessment of American duties against foreign imports.

The Democratic-Insurgent coalition, which humbled the president on the flexible provision, was mustering strong opposition against a new valuation provision, authorizing the tariff commission to convert all new and old rates to an American valuation for the future approval of congress. This plan was approved by the senate finance committee but both Democratic and Insurgent leaders assailed it as unnecessary and but an opening wedge for ultimate adoption of the American valuation plan.

Under retention of the foreign valuation basis, such as exists in the present law on which the senate finance committee would retain until congress could act on the commission's proposed conversion of an imported article. Under the foreign valuation plan, rates are assessed against the foreign value of an imported article under the American plan, the duties would be levied against the American selling price of a comparative American article.

MASONS ATTEND CANTON SESSION

M'MANUS TRIAL ON OCTOBER 15

Gambler Will Face Rothstein Murder Charge.

By JAMES L. KILGALLAN. NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—(INS)—George McManus, Broadway bookmaker, will go on trial for the murder of Arnold Rothstein, nationally known gambler, on Tuesday, Oct. 15. Judge Max S. Levine fixed the date of trial in general sessions today.

Rothstein was fatally shot in room 349 in the Park Central hotel on the night of Nov. 4 last. On his deathbed he refused to tell who shot him.

The question: "Who killed Rothstein?" has mystified the police and laymen of New York City for almost a year and has been thrust forward as a major issue in the present mayoralty campaign. Anti-Democratic speakers charged that Rothstein "worked with" Tammany politicians and that the now celebrated case has been "covered up."

selves to enter into a 'splendid Franco-German isolation.' The Young plan would be accepted, but it will require a strong government to carry it out because of the domestic battle over who will pay the bill."

Washington Shocked.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—(INS)—News of the death of Gustav Stresemann, German foreign minister, came as an unpleasant shock today to officials of the American government, who have long regarded him as one of the outstanding figures and stabilizing influences in Europe's post-war reconstruction.

The embassy here was deluged with expressions of regret and condolence from those in official life, and there were many tributes to the heroic part the German foreign minister has played in the difficult task of re-establishing the peace of Europe.

Senator William E. Borah (R) of Idaho, chairman of the senate foreign relations committee, who has long been an admirer of Herr Stresemann, said: "I think it will be conceded by all that Foreign Minister Stresemann had won a place among the first statesmen of the world."

"When you take into consideration the task before him when he became foreign minister and then measure the work which he did it places him among the great constructive statesmen of all time."

Von Hindenburg Recalled.

BERLIN, Oct. 3.—(INS)—President Von Hindenburg, of the German republic, was recalled from a hunting vacation today because of the sudden death of Foreign Minister Gustav Stresemann. President Von Hindenburg telegraphed the following message to Frau Stresemann: "I am deeply moved. I send to you and yours my expression of my heartiest sympathy over the death of your husband, who, to his last breath, worked so loyally for the Fatherland."

FIVE DINNERS FOR KERNAHAN

Meetings in Next Week's Campaign Announced.

Dinners for workers in the Kernahan visitation and evangelism campaign will be conducted in five churches next week to receive reports. All will be held at 6 o'clock. Monday night's dinner will be served in the First Church of Christ. Tuesday night's meeting will be at the First Methodist Episcopal church and Wednesday night's at the St. Stephens Episcopal parish house. The First Methodist Protestant church has been selected as the place for the Thursday night dinner. The meeting place for Friday night has not been determined.

Committees will call at the homes of non-church members every night next week, urging them to become affiliated with a church. Names of non-church members are being gathered in a house-to-house canvass which is being done in the East Liverpool-Wellsville-Chester district this week. The survey is scheduled to end Friday.

A general meeting of all workers in the census campaign will be held in the First Church of Christ at 7:30 o'clock tonight.

death of Dr. Gustav Stresemann, German foreign minister, caused a profound sensation in France today.

Former Premier Raymond Poincare was first informed of the German statesman's passing by International News Service.

"I am exceedingly sorry to hear it," M. Poincare said. "M. Georges Clemenceau, France's famous wartime premier, said, 'I regret to hear it.'"

"Don't you feel Stresemann was a great crusader for peace?" he was asked.

"Yes, he was," Clemenceau answered.

H. MASON DAY LEAVES JAIL

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—(INS)—H. Mason Day, the debonaire young aide of Harry F. Sinclair, who assisted his chief in jury-shadowing just as he did in obtaining oil concessions in many foreign lands, walked out of the district jail early this morning and straight into the arms of welcoming friends who immediately threw a big dinner for him at a prominent hotel here.

Day served a little more than three and a half months of a four-months' sentence, imposed upon him for his part in the jury-shadowing.

Sinclair has about seven weeks to go yet on his nine-month sentence.

UNCLE POM

By Henry C. Rowland

A sparkling, swift-moving mystery romance

SYNOPSIS.

Pomeroy Penfold, a wealthy American widower, nearing 50, loves to travel and visit friends. When the story opens he is a guest at the chateau of his sister, Alicia, and her husband, the Comte de Renneville. He is disturbed by the sight of an intruder—a man in yachting costume—who appears on the estate, and stares rudely at Maia, the count's lovely 20 year old daughter by a first marriage. Maia admits having met the man in America, and says his name is Capt. Seagrave.

That afternoon Kirby Colton, handsome scapegrace son of an American bishop, an old friend of the Penfold family, calls at the chateau unexpectedly, and is invited by the count to spend the night. He, too, has met Maia in America. The count surprises Uncle Pom by telling him Maia loves him and indicating the marriage would please him. Maia overhears them and confirms her father's remarks.

Later she confesses that both Seagrave and Colton are erstwhile suitors. Knowing the two hate each other, Uncle Pom goes in search of Kirby to avoid a clash. He is attacked from behind, knocked unconscious, and robbed of a belt containing priceless diamonds. That night a prowler in his room tries to choke him, then escapes. Maia suspects Seagrave of both attacks—he is always in financial difficulties—but Kirby astonishes every one by offering an alibi for his rival. And he confides in Uncle Pom that he has not come to see Maia, but to borrow $1,000 to save an innocent girl from trouble. Penfold gives him the money.

Seagrave calls, and is unabashed when Penfold tells him he is under grave suspicion for assault and battery. He denies the charges, announces that he intends to marry Maia, and infuriates Penfold by hinting he knows something to the girl's discredit, which he will use as blackmail, if necessary. Pressed for details, he declares she is involved in a case of murder, and says Colton can confirm the story, as he was a witness. Colton explains that Maia did shoot a man in America by accident, but through Seagrave's fault. He challenges the latter to a duel, but later agrees with Penfold that this would only bring scandal to Maia's name and the best thing for Kirby to do is to clear out at once.

Kirby makes a deposition, swearing he fired the shot, in order to forestall more blackmail threats, and surprises Penfold by confessing that he has just put through a coup with European financiers that will make him rich. He pays off the libel on Seagrave's yacht, hoping to get rid of him, because he feels Maia has more cause to fear him since she asked Kirby not to clear his rival's name with the alibi.

That night Uncle Pom is disturbed by a stealthy noise downstairs. Investigating, he finds that the count's sword, which hung over the library hearth, are missing. He suspects a duel and starts off to search the grounds. Suddenly he hears Maia's and Kirby's voices.

INSTALLMENT XXII.

Playing the Eavesdropper. Mr. Penfold was given time to think. He had already decided he must stop the encounter. It amazed him that so cold blooded a scoundrel as Seagrave should have let himself be drawn into it all, and what would look like murder to the other accounts against himself if victor, and let a few inches of cold steel, if not. He decided the affair had gone far enough and the sooner it was stopped the better. So far, no scruple at his espionage had entered his mind, though he had felt a twinge of disquiet at Maia's tone of voice more than the words when she had asked Kirby if his action had been entirely on Mr. Penfold's account. That, of course, had been merely an attempt to disarm him, a pardonable woman's wile. And yet it had irked Mr. Penfold.

Kirby and Maia were standing at the head of the old cove that was built of solid blocks of hewn stone and was about ten feet across, slanting down at an angle of some eight or nine degrees to some eight or nine degrees to the water mark, a form of landing that was crude but serviceable. They were some two hundred yards away from his point of observation, and that he might not appear to have been in hiding there, Mr. Penfold groped his way back as he had come and stepped out through the aperture. He paused for a moment to listen, and in the slithering of silence that seemed poised over land and water with the balance of a white moth on the calyx of a night blooming flower, he heard the distant measure of oars.

Kirby had been right. Evidently Seagrave had set out in a dash from the yacht in the swift little dinghy equipped with an outboard motor, and having quickly distanced possible surveillance had run across to the opposite shore, then stopped his engine, and was rowing up against it to the place of rendezvous.

Maia's voice throbbed through the stillness like a cello. "Kirby, was all wrong about you. I thought you were what everybody said, and back there at Newport you did nothing but play the fool."

"You haven't been so wrong about me. I've always been a fool."

"You haven't. People cast you for the part and you played up to it. That gave you a mischievous delight. I don't believe you ever did a really shameful thing."

"Lots of them," Kirby told her. "Well, you've never done a crooked thing."

"Not intentionally," he qualified. "But it's results you've got to look at."

"O, dear," cried Maia. "Why couldn't you have shown me a glimpse of you before? The real you."

"There wasn't much to show. Besides, what difference could it have made?"

"All the difference in the world. I loved Uncle Pom, and I love him still, but now I know that I love him the way you do—for his fineness and the sweetness of his nature because he's a true hearted gentleman that sticks to those he gives his friendship to through thick and thin."

Here was the exception that proves the rule—the eavesdropper hearing good of himself—but it was not the sort of good that Mr. Penfold would have wished to hear. The rush of understanding did not, however, surprise him greatly. His rare intuition had detected a change in Maia during that long day. She had, he now perceived, made her smiling declaration from the window in a rush of impulse that was at the moment entirely sincere and so was her confirmation of it on the terrace. But she had not known her mind. She had confused her sentiments that had been bewildered by the sinister shadow of Seagrave and her dread of him that was in the nature of a presentiment.

Strange as it may seem, Mr. Penfold's first mental reflex was of regretful relief—the tender melancholy that a right thinking person might feel at the renunciation of something that was sweet but that reason had dictated to be an error from the start. He was glad he had accepted the issue so gently imposed upon him, if only for binding her by ties of closer affection on his graceful abdication from a position that was false, if sweet.

Simultaneous in his mind was the fact that Maia must have been at the moment of her declaration to him in the presence of her father resisting not only a dread of Seagrave but a different sentiment for Kirby that was perhaps even more disturbing to her and had resented it.

Mr. Penfold broke cover. Unmindful of the bizarre figure he might cut in slippers and dressing gown over silk pajamas, he went down the steep bank to the cove. He was too finished a man of the world to feel the slightest embarrassment at what he had just overheard and the change of relationships that this knowledge entailed. All of that could wait. The matter of immediate importance was to stop the foolish combat at any cost, send Seagrave on his devious way, and herd this pair of potential lovers back to their respective beds.

They heard and caught sight of him and drew apart a little, staring with astonishment at what must have resembled some sort of Oriental materializing out of the medium of witch mist and lambent moonlight, his white voluminous head band like the turban of a Mahdi, this effect enhanced by the pale sheen of his gown, loose pajamas, and slippers feet.

"My word—Kirby gasped. "It's Mr. Penfold."

"Uncle Pom—whatever are you doing here?"

"I come," said Mr. Penfold, quick to appreciate his investiture of glamour, "to inject a little sanity where it appears badly needed."

As he spoke, the sound of oars on the water grew suddenly louder and the moonlight glistened on a delicate coracle that emerged from behind a jutting point of rock.

"I am afraid, sir," Kirby said a little stiffly, "that it is too late."

"I am sure," Mr. Penfold retorted, "that it is not. I have never been too late but once, and that fortunately can easily be corrected."

"When was it?" Maia asked. "When I let your fatuous father ramble along about your desire to marry me instead of shutting him up at once as all common sense dictated."

"But—Uncle Pom—"

"Precisely, my dear. 'Uncle Pom' is exact—and any more than that is sheer idiocy. So let us return to that affectionate relationship and no more said. Now what is this silly business about, Kirby?"

He looked at the pair of swords in their silver scabbards under Kirby's arm. "I thought we'd found a way to silence Seagrave."

"So had I, sir, but it seems not."

"Who says so?"

"Seagrave for one, and Maia for another. We'd counted on bluffing Seagrave out. But it's no good. He banks on Maia's declining to get up in court and swear under oath that she did not fire the fatal shot and that I did."

"Well," said Mr. Penfold slowly, "I might have known Seagrave would count on that."

"So it doesn't get us anywhere," Kirby said. "You can't blame Maia for refusing to perjure herself if Seagrave forces our hand as he intends to do."

"Noblesse oblige," Mr. Penfold murmured sadly. "Did he tell you that after he took his schooner out of hock?"

"Yes, sir—with a grin. He put one over on me because I had cashed the check and handed him the money like a fool. So there's only one way to shut his mouth. I've got to kill him."

Here's Why . . .

You Should Heat
Your Home With Gas

Automatic Gas heat is the last word for comfort and convenience in the home. The heating plant needs attention only twice a year—in the fall when you light the pilot, and in spring when you turn it off.

Thermostatic control, an upstairs indicator, keeps the home at a uniform temperature no matter how cold the weather.

Another advantage . . . The cleanliness of the basement and absence of the fuel bin, ashes, dust and grime, make it possible to utilize the basement for other purposes . . . a playroom for the kiddies, or a recreation room for all to enjoy.

Free surveys and estimates gladly furnished on a new heating plant or equipment to modernize your present furnace. Deferred payments can be arranged to suit your income.

3 chances out of 4

When you buy one new tire to replace one out of an old set you still have three chances for tire trouble left. After one tire goes the other old ones are apt to follow soon.

The satisfactory way is to keep the best one of your old tires for a spare and trade in the others on a set of new Millers.

Then you will have maximum freedom from punctures, from skidding and from carcass failures.

We can allow you all your old tires are worth because we can sell them to some one with an older car.

Expect 300 Scouts At Jamboree Here

Rotarians Plan District Meeting; Lads who Made European Trip Will be Dinner Guests.

WELLSVILLE, O., Oct. 3.—President C. W. Arnold of the Wellsville Rotary club today announced the completion of arrangements for the reception of approximately 300 Columbiana county and Youngstown district Boy Scouts at a rally Friday night in the First Methodist Episcopal church.

Earl D. Heffner, Youngstown, jamboree scoutmaster for the Youngstown district delegation which attended the international scout meet at Birkenhead, England, this summer, Jack Catlett and Fred Banfield of East Liverpool, local scouts who made the European trip, as well as others from the Youngstown district will be guests of the Rotary club at dinner at 6:30 o'clock.

Special music and an entertainment program is being arranged for the event.

The local jamboree will be preceded by a parade here in which scouts from this city, East Liverpool, Salem, Columbiana, Lisbon, Chester and Newell will take part.

The East Liverpool drum and bugle corps and the Wellsville high school band will provide the music for the parade.

Two films will be shown in connection with the scout program here, one taken during the overseas cruise and the other showing scenes at the Columbiana county camp at Eagleton's glen.

20TH CENTURY CLUB TO MEET

Will Launch Fall Program at Friday Session.

President's day will be observed by members of the Twentieth Century club Friday afternoon at their first meeting of the year which will be held in the home of Mrs. A. J. Stolper, Lowville farm, in the Salineville road.

Officers of the club for the coming season are: President, Mrs. J. F. Donnelly; first vice president, Miss Carrie Southwick; second vice president, Mrs. Isaac Fleming; recording secretary, Mrs. G. F. McCready; corresponding secretary, Mrs. L. F. Burris; treasurer, Mrs. J. S. Lambing; parliamentarian, Mrs. W. F. Lones; critic, Mrs. A. F. Campbell.

Roll call—Description of characters from "Chaucer's Canterbury Tales."

A short review of the earliest English writers, including Bebe, Cadman and Wyckliff—Miss Nan Stevenson.

Reading from the prologue to the "Canterbury Tales"—Mrs. D. P. Morrison.

Mrs. Morrison and Miss Stevenson are assisting Mrs. Stolper, the program committee chairman, in the preparation of the year's subjects.

SCHOOL HOLDS PLAY EXERCISE

Special exercises were held yesterday afternoon in the McKinley building in the east end in recognition of the presentation by the late Miss Mary Stokes of a large American flag and a Webster's dictionary to the building.

Miss Stokes had taught a number of years in this building and was principal there for 12 years prior to her death.

The flag was hung in the corridor and the students, following a salute, sang "America."

Four patriotic readings were given, including "Our Flag Forever" by Norma Leake; "Our Flag" by Frank Guidone; "Old Glory" by Phyllis Clendenning; and "Our Flag" by Charles Geisse. Pupils of the third grade sang.

Orth Laboratories Adopt Similar Plan Under Expert's Direction; Local Investors to Be Recognized First.

To illustrate the possibilities of the Orth Laboratory Company, which is now undergoing a reorganization under the direction of J. E. Plant, nationally known advertising and sales director, the following excerpt taken from a trade journal, is given:

"Since August, 1925, the Vick Chemical Co. earned approximately $9,700,000 for its stockholders, of which $5,650,000 has been distributed in dividends. Of the balance a portion has been invested in the business and the remainder has been placed in reserve fund for future contingencies and development."

The Vick Chemical Company not so many years ago underwent a reorganization as similar to the Orth Laboratory Company and after a short period emerged one of the largest companies of its kind, enabling its stockholders to receive many times the amount of their original investment in dividends besides increasing very greatly the valuation of their stock.

The products of the Orth Laboratory Company, Dr. Orth's Stomach Remedy and the Health Tablet are now returning two and one half times the amount invested in advertising—a very good sign—as statistics show that a two for one return is usually the condition

COUNTY WHEAT GROWTH O. K.

Rainfall During September Aids, Copeland Says.

LISBON, O., Oct. 3.—As result of rainfall during the latter part of September, early sown wheat made a good growth, U. S. Co-operative Weather Observer Lawrence H. Copeland, of Millport, announced today.

The first 10 days in September were the warmest during the summer period. The drouth ended Sept. 10, and the first killing frost was noted Sept. 19, when heavy damage resulted to corn which was not matured. All pastures are short and live stock is being fed.

Mean maximum temperature for September was 75.1, the mean minimum 47.2, and the mean 62.1. A maximum temperature of 69 degrees was recorded September 3, 4

Clear Skin

IT'S the person with a clear, smooth, lovely complexion that usually wins.

To be sure, not much is said openly about skin eruptions, but secretly they influence many important affairs. Personal likes and dislikes are quickly formed.

Everybody wants to be attractive. It is a just and natural ambition. A clear skin makes everyone more attractive.

Skilled physicians recognize the appearance of pimples, boils, eczema, and other skin eruptions as being an indication that the body's power of resistance is low—that there is a deficiency of red blood-cells.

If you are troubled with so-called skin disorders or if the count of your red-blood-cells is low, take a few bottles of S.S.S. Seek energy, vitality and a clear skin through the remedy, which is made from fresh vegetable drugs, and has stood the test of over 100 years.

All Drug Stores sell S.S.S. in two sizes. Ask for the larger size. It is more economical.

S.S.S. a clear skin comes from within

The sure way to remedy this condition is to restore the red-blood-cells to normal.

This is why so many thousands have been enabled to free themselves of those unsightly blemishes and painful skin annoyances by taking a course of S.S.S.

S.S.S. helps Nature restore the blood to its normal state. Healthy blood makes the body strong and resistant to disease.

Without plenty of rich, red blood there could be no strong, sturdy, powerful men, or healthy, beautiful women.

If you are troubled with so-called skin disorders or if the count of your red-blood-cells is low, take a few bottles of S.S.S. Seek energy, vitality and a clear skin through the remedy, which is made from fresh vegetable drugs, and has stood the test of over 100 years.

and 5, and a minimum of 29 was noted on Sept. 19. The greatest daily range of 40 degrees was recorded Sept. 16.

Rainfall during September was 4.23 inches, and the heaviest being 1.06 inches on Sept. 2. There were 12 days last month when the precipitation was .01 inch or more. There were but nine clear, 14 partly cloudy and seven cloudy days last month.

The normal temperature for September during the past 37 years is 63 degrees and the normal rainfall for the same period was 2.90 inches. The rainfall last month, however, was above the average.

AUTOIST SUED FOR $3,000

E. Palestine Passenger, Hurt, Seeks Damages.

LISBON, O., Oct. 3.—Charles Metz of New Waterford, through his counsel F. W. Springer, of East Palestine, has filed a $3,000 damage action in common pleas court against Mike Mercure, also of New Waterford, as an aftermath of an automobile accident.

Metz declares that he was a passenger in the car of the defendant on the Sharon-Five Points road, June 17, when he was being driven at a speed of 50 miles an hour, and that he was suddenly driven onto rough road. Metz alleges he was cut about the head and face by being thrown against the windshield, and his knees badly injured by being jammed against the instrument board.

The plaintiff says that he lost his work with the New Waterford Furniture Company as a result of the accident.

Just after this suit was filed, the Salem Finance Company took judgment against Mercure for costs on a cognovit note.

SIX PETITIONS FILED IN COURT

LISBON, O., Oct. 3.—S. A. Hart, doing business as the Hart Motor company, of Salineville, has filed suit in common pleas court to recover $309.68 and interest at 6 per cent from Oct. 3, 1925, from Rodney Ogile, Jr., of Lisbon.

Judgment by default in favor of the plaintiff for $283.45 has been entered by Judge W. F. Lones in the case of William H. Knepper against the Martin-Kaul Coal company and the M. G. Martin Coal company. The plaintiff obtained a judgment in a lower court, and then the defendant appealed, but failed to appear when the case was called for trial.

Interpretation of an oil and gas lease is sought in a petition filed by Addie F. Conkle against the Natural Gas company of West Virginia. Attorneys S. W. Crawford and Charles Boyd represent the plaintiff.

On the grounds of extreme cruelty, a divorce has been granted Lucinda R. Clutter from her husband, Robert R. Clutter. The plaintiff has been restored to her maiden name, Lucinda R. Snyder.

The demurrer to the amended petition has been overruled in the case of Amanda Evans against Howard E. Mick; an action for $265.55 with interest for taxes. Because the appellant failed to file a transcript, H. R. Schaefer has obtained a judgment for $157.58 and costs in his case against Carl W. Phillips. The defendant has been ordered to pay the costs.

GRAND JURY CALL EXPECTED IN NOVEMBER

Special Session is Planned by Prosecutor.

JAIL CROWDED

Twenty Felony Charges are Listed for Action.

LISBON, O., Oct. 3.—A special session of the grand jury probably will be called for November by Prosecuting Attorney John E. Banknecht, it was indicated today.

Since the September session, a number of men have been committed to the county jail on felony charges, and about 12 cases are now awaiting the filing of transcripts with Clerk of Courts John A. Nobel. Sheriff W. J. Barlow said today that the jail is so crowded that some prisoners must sleep in the corridors.

Two transcripts are to be filed charging men with violation of the liquor laws, and the majority of the other transcripts will charge prisoners with robberies, automobile thefts and issuing questionable checks.

Prosecutor Banknecht will call upon all lower courts within the next 10 days to file all criminal transcripts in order that the machinery can be set up for the grand jury session.

Real Estate Transfers.
LISBON, O., Oct. 3.—Real estate transfers have been filed as follows:

Affidavit for transfer of real estate inherited from John R. Bustard by Gertrude N. Bustard and others, part of lot 16 in Appraisers' addition, Salem; Mary Bustard to Gertrude Bustard, same tract, $10.

Affidavit for transfer of real estate inherited from Leonard W. Galbreath by Anna F. Galbreath and others, lot 206 in Leontonia. Frank Katz and wife to Kate Katz, lot 116 in McKenzie addition, Wellsville, $1.

Donald McLane to William McLane, lot McKinley avenue, Lisbon, $1.

The International Real Estate company, to Harry A. Sittler, lots 81 and 96, Bell Park plan, Columbiana, $10.

Frank B. Eagleton to D. H. McCredie, land in section 1, Knox township, $1.

$600 DAMAGES ASKED IN WRECK

LISBON, O., Oct. 3.—The Famous Dairy Company, of Salem through its counsel W. W. Beck has filed suit in common pleas court against S. C. Joy, of Wellsville, claiming $600 damages as a result of an automobile wreck on the Lincoln highway, near Linwood Gardens, Jan. 18, 1928.

C. S. Frazer, general manager of the Famous company, with his wife and child, driving a company car south, was run off the road by Joy and the car wrecked, it is charged, for which $500 is asked. In addition, $100 is sought for the loss of the car in the business of the company.

LISBON, O., Oct. 3.—There were 1,272 bills of sale for motor vehicles filed for record with Clerk of Courts John A. Noble during September. It was announced today. This record included bills for 246 new pleasure cars and 35 new trucks.

Dangerous Stomach Catarrh

Often Mistaken for Indigestion. Watch These Symptoms.

Thousands of people have Catarrh of the Stomach and don't know it. They treat it as indigestion. Yet coated tongue, and belching, sour burning stomach, rumbling, bitter eructations and gas are all common symptoms of dangerous Gastric Catarrh.

In this disease, a coating of phlegm covers the mucous membrane lining of the stomach, so that digestive fluids cannot mix with and digest the food. This condition soon breeds deadly disease in the fermented, unassimilated food. The blood is polluted and carries the infection throughout the body. Gastric ulcers are apt to form and deadly cancer may develop.

Pepsin pills, soda mints and artificial digestants should never be used in such cases. Instead, right after meals, take a teaspoonful or two tablets of pure Bisurated Magnesia in a glass of hot water. This will wash away the mucus, draw the blood to the stomach, neutralize acidity, prevent sourness, gas and fermentation and permit natural, easy, painless digestion. The whole stomach is cleansed, strengthened and sweetened. Be sure to get genuine Bisurated Magnesia which is especially prepared for this purpose. Any good druggist can supply you, and it is safe, easy and pleasant to use—Adv.

GRIDIRON BOOSTER DAY PROGRAM PLANNED

Toronto Contest Feature

Athletic Association Prepares for Big Turnout.

PLANS for the observance of an annual Boosters' day here Saturday, Oct. 12, in connection with the yearly clash between the East Liverpool and Toronto high school squads were announced today by officers of the East Liverpool Athletic Association.

Every effort will be made by the association to bring out one of the largest attendances of the season for this event.

Merchants throughout the city will be asked to fly the school colors, blue and white, from their staffs in front of their places or in any other way decorative for the occasion.

A special feature on the afternoon program will be the parade and music of the rival school bands.

The Torontoans' 65-piece high school band is among the best organizations of its kind in the valley. Attired in their red and white uniforms and combined with the blue and white clad musicians of the local school, they should aid in providing a colorful spectacle.

The association is extending a written invitation to the mayor and the citizens of Toronto to attend the game and be the guests of the city on that day.

Section of the grandstand will be reserved for both 50-cent and 25-cent admissions. Seats will go on sale the first of the week. They can be procured at the R. G. Brian store, Fifth street.

The association is requesting solid support for the bleacher project at Patterson field. They point out that the bleachers will be available to every one who may care to use them in the future, including baseball and other clubs. Association officers say the west end lot is not purely for high school athletics and point out that no doubt the board of education will be willing to co-operate with all athletics.

Amateur Ring Bouts Planned

Tourney to be Staged in Wellsville Oct. 28.

As an interesting pre-Hallowe'en event arranged by the Wellsville mardigras boosters, an amateur boxing tournament billed for the Columbiana county championship among the non-paid scrappers, will be staged Monday night, Oct. 28, in the city hall auditorium here.

The event has been arranged as a benefit for the Hallowe'en fund but should provide a lot of interesting competition if entries come in as they should.

R. A. Wade, 555 Main street, Wellsville, is receiving entries now and will, up until October 15, when the lists close.

The tournament will be conducted under A. A. U. rules, and suitable prizes will be awarded the winners.

Boxers showing ability in the amateur bouts will be given an opportunity to appear on the Valley A. C. program later in the season.

YOUTH SEEKS BABE'S CROWN

It remained for a long hitting youngster, not yet old enough to vote, to give Babe Ruth (right), home-run king, a run for his money for the season's circuit hit record. None of the stellar hitters of either league have a chance to approach the Bam's record excepting Melvin Ott (left), of the Giants. Even if Mel shouldn't beat the Babe, he has tied the long standing record for National league four-baggers, having garnered 42, the mark Roberts Hornsby set. Never before in the game's history has so young a player risen to such heights of stardom as Mel Ott. Little known, but showing promise last season, here's Ott competing with the greatest slugger of all time. Mel, alone of all the men in the game, is granted a chance to overtake the Babe's all time record of 500 homers.

'Tough Racket' Aver Waners Reserves As They Watch State Squad Play At Midland

"They Hit 'em Hard In This Football League"; Traynor Convinced Baseball's Not so Tough After All.

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 3.—Paul and Lloyd Wanner watched Ohio State's gridiron squad work out yesterday, and today, according to themselves, they are glad that they chose baseball as their sport.

The Wanners, in case the fan doesn't know, are members of the Pittsburgh Pirates and one of the most famous pair of brothers in baseball.

"Gee kid! They hit 'em awful hard in this football league, don't they?" asked Paul as he watched the varsity eleven stamp through the second stringers.

"Yea," replied Lloyd and then he lapsed into silence, but by the shake of his head and the shrug of his shoulders, one could easily see that the younger brother felt sorry for the knights of the gridiron.

"And," piped up Pie Traynor, the Pittsburgh third baseman, "they don't get a red cent for it, either. He appeared depressed at the thought and then he remarked, 'our life isn't so tough after all.'"

Jewell Ens, the Buccaneers new manager, and Earl Sheely, first baseman, who with the other three players were guests of Coach Harold Olsen, agreed with Traynor.

And while this foregoing was taking place on the sidelines, the "scarlet and gray" were pounding through the second team like a threshing machine through a pile of ripened wheat.

The first-stringers scored three touchdowns before Coach Williams called for signal drill and then sent his charges to the showers.

Bob Horn, former North High school star, who surprised the football world by clipping off a 70-yard run in practice Tuesday afternoon, is still showing good. Bob did nothing as spectacular as his first run, but he bucked the line, tore and sidestepped through tackles and skirted around ends for consistent gains. Williams is pleased with his new "find," and Bob is almost sure of a varsity berth.

Fouch was barking the signals in absence of Al Holman, who is confined to the bench because of injury.

Dempsey Hit As Promoter

Jackie Fields Defeats Vince Dundee on Points.

CHICAGO, Oct. 3.—Loud was the praise sung today for Jack Dempsey the promoter following his first boxing show in Chicago last night when Jackie Fields, new world's welterweight champion, outpointed Vince Dundee of Baltimore in a hard-fought ten-round battle.

Although Fields was given the judges' decision at the finish, Dundee's spectacular rally in the seventh round won a tremendous ovation from the spectators.

In another ten round bout Dave Shade, New York middleweight, defeated Joe Roche of San Francisco. Haakon Hanson, Chicago, middleweight, whipped "Cowboy" Dula of Oklahoma in five rounds.

Estelle Taylor Dempsey, wife of the former champion, was a spectator as was William Wrigley, Jr., owner of the Chicago Cubs.

Members of the East Liverpool branch of the Columbiana County Fish and Game Protective association will meet tonight at 8 o'clock in their headquarters in the Ingram building.

Drop Opener to Iron-dale Varsity Eleven.

AFTER losing their opener, 33 to 0, at Irondale last week, the local high school reserve gridders will go after a win tomorrow afternoon when they collide with the Midland high reserves at Midland.

The game is scheduled for 4:30 p. m.

The reserves will have virtually the same lineup as was used in the Irondale encounter with strength added to a few weak spots here and there.

Clarke and Cook will probably handle the ends, with Hanna, Rose and Sharkey at tackles; Hargraves and R. Athar for guards, and Boals and R. Boyd, center candidates.

The backfield will be selected from Wagner, Coleman, Dick Hall, Knowles, Dick Witherow and Stewart.

The reserves backed up against some stiff opposition when they tackled the Irondale varsity last Saturday. The Irons registered five touchdowns, two in the second period, two more in the third and the last in the fourth.

After Irondale's two markers in the second quarter on straight foot ball, Sprengle opened the third with a long end run that crossed the goal line. On the next kick-off, Nemitt received and carried the ball to the 25 yard line. Chetock hit the line for 10 yards and Brown made eight more. Chetock then carried it over.

MEEHAN SEEKS MORE SPEED

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—Despite the fine showing of his N. Y. Violets in their game with Vermont, Coach Meehan believes his squad needs more speed, and is working toward that end. Charles Marshall, an end, continues to average over 45 yards with his kicks and is expected to do the booting for the Violets.

Shorter Schedule Favored

Rain, Cold Weather Interfere With Games.

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—Mother nature, kindly old dame that she is, has been doing her best lately to help the baseball mezzals make up their minds concerning the shortening of the baseball season.

The powers that be have been talking quite a bit of late about clearing up the schedule before or by October first and the weather that we've been having should go a long way in showing them the wisdom in such a course.

In addition to the weather, football comes crashing into the picture late in September and the two hardly mix.

Of yesterday's three scheduled major league contests only one was played—Chicago at Cincinnati—Brooklyn at New York and Washington at Philadelphia were rained out.

The Cubs derived great pleasure from the offerings of Pitcher Jackie May and slammed him and his successor, Ray Kulp, for fourteen hits and seven runs, winning 7 to 4.

Miss Collett Is Favorite Champion is Expected To Repeat at Detroit.

By Robert B. Wallace.

DETROIT, Oct. 3.—Gone are the old familiar faces, several of them anyhow, as the 1929 Women's National Golf Tournament goes into the quarterfinals today.

Yesterday was a tough day for the faces. Such famous physiognomies as those of Maureen O'Neil, metropolitan champion, Marion Turner, southern champion, and Virginia Van Wie, finalist in the 1928 tournament, were among the day's casualties.

A couple of the old familiar faces are still in the picture though, and the one you can't miss is that of Glenna Collett, the champion. Lots of people say that Glenna can't miss either in the 1929 tournament.

In view of her great, runaway victory over Miss O'Neil it is safe to remark that it will be quite a trick to stop Glenna. They may have to call out the marines.

One other veteran is showing the younger golfing generation the way in this year's tournament. Mrs. Dorothy Campbell Hurd, who was winning National titles two decades ago, scored an impressive win over Jeanette Hunter, 21-year-old Pennsylvania girl, in yesterday's round. Miss Hunter had previously defeated another great veteran, Mrs. Alexa Stirling Fraser, of Ottawa.

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—Sid Terris, Ghetto Ghost, was an 8 to 5 favorite to defeat Stanley Loayza, sturdy Chilean, in their ten-round feature engagement tonight at Madison Square Garden.

Cobb Picks Athletics To Win World's Series

A's Will Win Because of Connie Mack, Says Famous Ty Who Thinks Quaker Pilot Has no Superior.

By DAVIS J. WALSH.

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—The Philadelphia Athletics will win the world series, said Ty Cobb today, which was quite as expected, and thereupon offered an explanation which was as unexpected as the bite of a very vicious canary.

The Athletics will win, according to Ty, because of one man and in order to baffle the constituency I think I ought to mention the fact that the individual in question will not get a base hit, throw a ball, make a putout or receive credit for an assist. The man's name is Connie Mack.

Connie, according to his late employe, will be one of the greatest single factors in the series with his judgment, generalship, split-second thinking and the inspiration he gives his men. And by way of emphasis and for good measure Ty, who will "cover" the series for a syndicate, thinks Philadelphia has a few more aces buried in the deck, of which the following are a sample:

1. That Grove, far from being a champ against right hand hitting, has less trouble with the right handers than he does with left hand hitters.

2. That the club has too much polish, punch and confidence to be beaten, except by one of the great machines of the generation.

3. That apparently the Cubs are not one of the great machines of the generation.

4. That the darkening days of early fall will make the fast ball pitching of Grove, Earnshaw and Walberg unbeatable.

5. That the Cubs have more out of their pitchers, jockey them to better effect or nurse them through the pinches with more success.

6. Team Morale Factor. Because of these things, I consider him the finest field strategist I ever saw.

7. I never saw a man who can get more out of his pitchers, jockey them to better effect or nurse them through the pinches with more success.

8. Team Morale Factor. Because of these things, I consider him the finest field strategist I ever saw.

items were to be considered in the light of corroborative evidence; that, in fact, one might be justified in throwing all of them out over the back steps if "Mr. Mack," as Ty calls him, wasn't going to sit on the Philadelphia bench. He didn't actually say so but, in discussing "Mr. Mack" in considerable detail—and incidentally presenting an intimate lantern slide of the man's character—Ty gave the impression that, if he didn't consider "Mr. Mack" the greatest manager in the game, he couldn't remember the name of a greater one.

"I mean no disrespect to Joe McCarthy when I point to Mr. Mack as an argument in favor of the Athletics," said Ty. "The fact of the matter is that, in my opinion, no man can sway the result of a ball game from the bench as Connie Mack can. He is uncanny in his field direction; he moves his outfielders almost to the square inch for a hitter you would expect to hit in another direction entirely. You see, he figures his pitchers and what the count is on the batter and then he will tell you, within a few feet, where the ball will be hit. This often is dead against where the man usually hits but Mr. Mack is almost never wrong. He is almost occult about it."

11. That Grove, far from being a champ against right hand hitting, has less trouble with the right handers than he does with left hand hitters.

12. That the club has too much polish, punch and confidence to be beaten, except by one of the great machines of the generation.

13. That apparently the Cubs are not one of the great machines of the generation.

14. That the darkening days of early fall will make the fast ball pitching of Grove, Earnshaw and Walberg unbeatable.

15. That the Cubs have more out of their pitchers, jockey them to better effect or nurse them through the pinches with more success.

16. Team Morale Factor. Because of these things, I consider him the finest field strategist I ever saw.

gist we have. And as a handler of men, he can't be beaten. They are crazy about him; and why not? An absolute monarch as far as his control of the club is concerned, he never is anything but kindly and encouraging to his players. That club has as fine a morale as any I've known and, with its natural power, smoothness and skill, I would be forced to pick it, even if I had never been an American leaguer.

This much and much more of a similar strain rolled off the Cobb palate and into mine heeding ear. Boiled down, the rest of it follows:

If Grove gets away to a good start, the Cubs will never stop him. It will take a good change of pace pitchers to bother the Athletics. That Walberg and Grove have nothing in common excepting left hands, Walberg being a curveballer, with a "skidding" fast ball. That Grove ought to fool a "swing" hitter like Wilson. That he assumes that the Cubs, as a machine, have yet to reach their best, whereas the Athletics are at the pinnacle. That Grove's pitching difficulties of the past month mean very little. That, if he starts and wins the first game, he is liable to pitch the third, which will be in Philadelphia at least three days later. That Carlson may give the Athletics more trouble than any other Cub pitcher. That Cochrane and Dykes are among the great morale-builders in the game. That he himself is not out of baseball permanently but never again will be a player. That he has turned down one major league managerial offer but might give the thing a whirl, under encouraging auspices.

23. That Grove, far from being a champ against right hand hitting, has less trouble with the right handers than he does with left hand hitters.

24. That the club has too much polish, punch and confidence to be beaten, except by one of the great machines of the generation.

25. That apparently the Cubs are not one of the great machines of the generation.

26. That the darkening days of early fall will make the fast ball pitching of Grove, Earnshaw and Walberg unbeatable.
